Terms and Conditions

1. Australia Arab Chamber of Commerce & Industry (AACCI) is authorised by the Australian Federal Government to process and issue Certification of Origin documents via electronic transmission or e-mail ("email Certification of Origin"). Certification of Origin under the authority delegated by the Australian Federal Government to AACCI is not a warranty or guarantee that the goods certified are acceptable for import under the laws, rules or practices of the country of their intended destination and is not intended to be relied by any person on as such a warranty or guarantee. The email Certification of Origin service is provided to the Exporter on the basis that the Exporter is responsible for making their own enquiries and seeking any appropriate independent professional advice necessary regarding the acceptance or otherwise of the goods and of email Certification of Origin documents in the intended country of destination for import. In the event that the intended country of import does not accept the goods or the email Certification of Origin, The Australian Federal Government or any of its agents, including AACCI, does not accept any liability for loss, damage or personal injury, including any consequential loss, that may result, or costs that may be incurred, either directly or indirectly, as a result of any person relying on or using email Certification of Origin for a purpose other than that for which it is intended.
